Dear Dick:

It was thoughtful of you to let me see your exchange of correspondence with George Meany about the speech you gave in Florence.

I am delighted to learn that it is being reprinted in the American Federationist and featured in the AFL-CIO's monthly magazine.

How gratifying to know that we can count you among the people who care enough to speak out!

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Patricia M. Derian

Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs

The Honorable
Richard N. Gardner,
The American Ambassador,
Rome.
